

FIVE SECONDS

INTRODUCTION

Thank you for your kind and patient attention to a very long lesson last week. In return, I'd like to present a five second sermon at this time.

I. SECOND COVENANT

A. Hebrews 8:7

The first covenant, the one God gave Israel through Moses, was not intended to be permanent.

B. Isaiah 55:3; Hebrews 13:20-21

While the first covenant was in force, God offered to establish an everlasting one. We can be complete in this covenant.

C. Hebrews 7:22; 8:6

The covenant of Christ is better than the old one because it was established upon better promises.

D. Hebrews 10:9-10

The existence of this covenant shows that the old one is done away.

II. SECOND MAN

A. 1st Corinthians 15:47

Whereas Adam was the first man, Christ is the second man.

B. 1st Corinthians 15:22, 45

The actions of the first man introduced death, but the actions of the second man provide life everlasting.

C. 1st John 5:11

Christ gives life.

III. SECOND COMMANDMENT

A. Matthew 22:37-40

The second commandment, subservient only to the love we must have for God, is to love our neighbors.

B. Luke 10:25-37

The second commandment is exemplified by the good Samaritan.

C. James 2:8-9; Romans 13:9-10

Through love, we can fulfill the law. This requires that we do no harm to our neighbor.

IV. SECOND COMING

A. Hebrews 9:27-28

Christ will come again to save those of us who are waiting for Him!

B. John 14:1-3

He promised to come again.

C. Acts 1:9-11

He will come as He left.

D. Mark 13:32; 2nd Peter 3:10

He will come unexpectedly.

E. Matthew 16:27; 2nd Thessalonians 1:7-9

He will come to reward the faithful and punish the disobedient.

V. SECOND DEATH

A. Revelation 21:8

The second death is the ultimate punishment for those guilty of sin.

B. Revelation 2:11; 20:6

The second death will have no effect on the obedient.

C. Romans 6:23

In contrast to death as the punishment for sin, life is offered through Christ.

Will you accept it?
